Raven Form

- In this form, the metamorph cannot take off and land in the same MVT action.

 When he manages a dodge roll, he can decide whether to proceed to his free MVT on the ground or whether to take off, flying on the spot.*

 While flying : no zone of control, he is considered to be 4 fathoms above ground.*

 If he is put out of combat while flying, he falls down of 1D5 fathoms towards the direction of the die, and potentially deals "collision" damage on his way.*
